Monologuist Coming To S.F. Next Week

SAN FRANCISCO—Ruth Draper, described by Alexander Woollcott as "The Magic Woman," comes to the Curran for a week beginning Monday night in a repertoire of monologues.

She is a linguist and it is her beautiful clear diction that has always fascinated her English audiences. While she was in Australia the school authorities closed the high schools and colleges at various times to permit the students to witness her performances. They laid particular stress on her perfect use of the English language.

Miss Draper's repertoire during her week's stay in San Francisco will be as follows: Monday and Tuesday nights, "In County Kerry," "The Actress," "Doctors and Diets," "In a Church in Italy"; Wednesday matinee, "At a Children's Party in Philadelphia," "On the Porch in a Maine Coast Village," "Showing the Garden," "A Dalmatian Peasant in the Hall of a New Hospital," "In a Railway Station on the Western Plains"; Wednesday and Saturday nights, "Three Generations in a Court of Domestic Relations," "Three Breakfasts," "A Class in Greek Poise," "The Italian Lesson," "A Scottish Immigrant at Ellis Island"; Thursday and Friday nights, "Opening a Bazaar," "Three Women and Mr. Clifford," "On a Porch in a Maine Coast Village," "In a Church in Italy"; Saturday matinee, "The Italian Lesson," "A Dalmatian Peasant in the Hall of a New York Hospital," "A Class in Greek Poise," "In a Church in Italy."

George L. North Jr. Named Aviation Cadet

Staff Sgt. George L. North, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. North Sr. of Redwood City, has been accepted as an Army Air Corps aviation cadet.

Formerly on duty at the Merced Air Corps Basic Flying School, North qualified by passing the new army "screen test," recently adopted method of selecting aviation cadets.

He has been sent to the Air Corps Reception Center at Higley Field, Ariz. At the completion of basic military training there he will be classified either as a pilot, navigator, or bombardier and assigned to an air corps primary school.

Upon satisfactorily completing 30 weeks of training, he will be commissioned a second lieutenant.

MENLO PARK NEWS

MENLO PARK— Local real estate men say they just had more inquiries for property than at any time last Summer. Many sales were made of small holdings during the week.

Business property is in big demand.

The rainfall for the season as recorded by the rain guage at the Southern Pacific depot is 11.56 inches as against 12.04 in. at this time last year.

The drowning of little Patricia Connolly in the San Francisquito Creek last week recalls the tragic death of Gussie Kugeler, brother of the late Meta Krugeler, at the bridge on the county highway in the eighties. The body of the boy was never recovered from the surging waters of the stream. Other fatalities have occurred since then.

Two local young men left for the front this week. They will be missed at social events.

Two new houses will be started on Pine St. when the weather clears. They will cost about $6000 each. There is a big demand for cottages in Menlo Park by residents of San Francisco who want the climate of the Peninsula.

A local politician is being groomed by his friends for the office of sheriff. His candidacy will be launched in early Spring. He should make a good run.

Because of the swollen condition of San Francisquito Creek there is a large run of salmon to the headwaters to spawn and poachers should beware of the penalty attached to fishing out of season. Many large fish have been brought to town recently.

There are already six candidates mentioned for the three places on the board of trustees at the election to be held on Apr. 14. Felton Gables has two aspirants, Stanford Park two and Pine St. two. The campaign promises to be a lively one. The city clerk and treasurer will be unopposed.

At the Naval Academy the curbstones are red, green and yellow denoting no parking, officers cars and commercial vehicles, respectively.

'Johnny Fager' Comes to Sequoia

Not since "Honky Tonk" has so exciting a screen team been offered the movie public as M-G-M presents in its new drama, "Johnny Eager," which opens Sunday on the Sequoia Theater screen with Robert Taylor and Lana Turner appearing together for the first time. Story of a gangster and a girl who tries to straighten him out—too late—the new picture is hailed as the most powerful gangster saga since "Little Caesar."

'Pacific Aflame' Booked for S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO—The world premiere of "Pacific Aflame," documentary film completed only five days before Pearl Harbor, will be shown at Veterans Auditorium here next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. and Wednesday at 2:30 p.m., with "Singapore Joe" Fisher as commentator. Arrest of Four Boys Solves Many Thefts

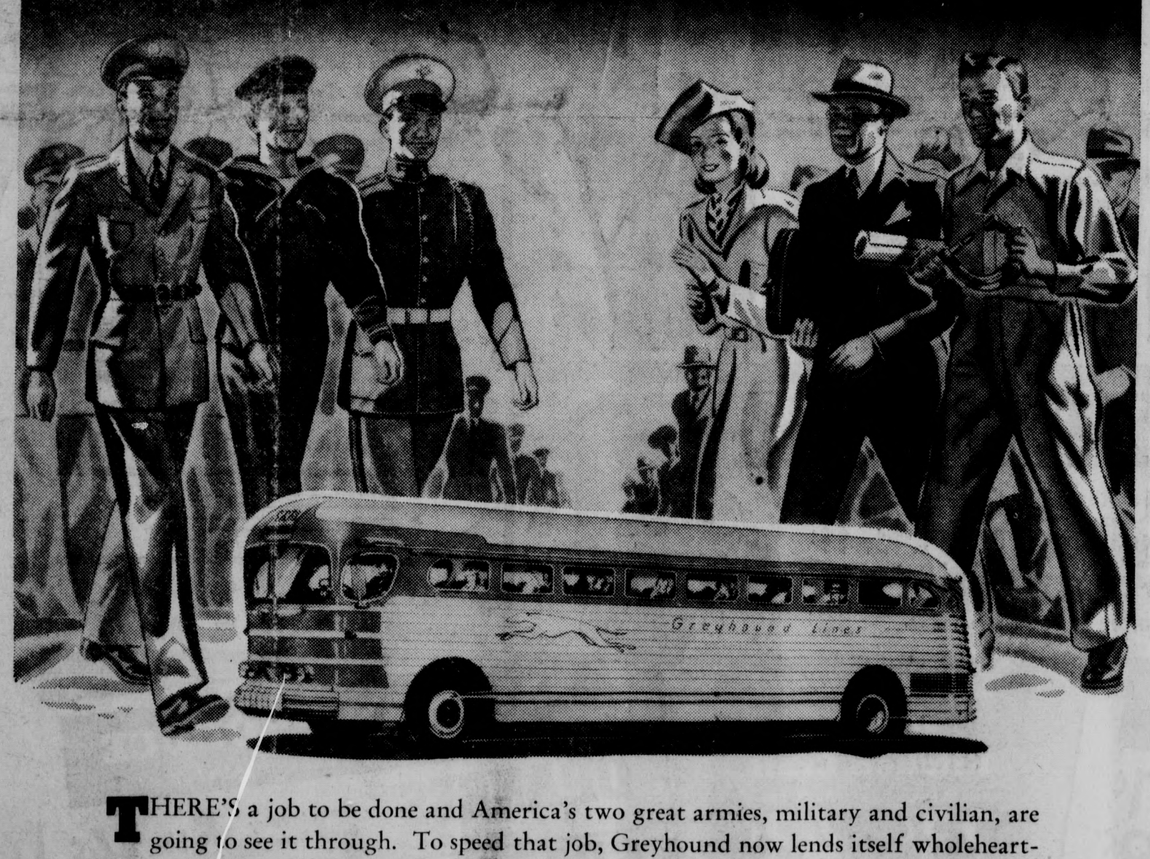
SAN MATEO — Four boys, three 15, one 13, have confessed to a series of burglaries over the past year and thus solved nearly every petty theft in San Mateo and Burlingame for a year, it was disclosed by the San Mateo Police Department Monday.

IN ACTIVE SERVICE
for America's Two Great Armies!



THERE'S a job to be done and America's two great armies, military and civilian, are going to see it through. To speed that job, Greyhound now lends itself wholeheartedly to the needs of a nation at war. With its immense carrying power and its great flexibility, Greyhound is putting America's highways to work for defense . . . smoothing out bottlenecks, rounding out the entire transportation picture.

TO THE FIGHTING ARMY
— the courageous men of our armed forces — Greyhound's nationwide service makes possible reunions whenever leaves and furloughs can be granted. It means hours saved by timely schedules over direct highway routes — low fares that fit easily within the minimum service pay.

TO THE CIVILIAN ARMY
— the rest of America's millions who are all-out to back their fighting men — motor bus travel has become a vital necessity. It gets defense workers and people of every occupation to their jobs and homes with a minimum use of rubber and other defense materials.

To both these armies Greyhound promises the extra effort America has every right to expect. Now every Greyhound bus has a new destination sign . . . Victory for the U. S. A.!

Rev. T. B. (Tubby) Clayton

King George's Chaplain To Be Feted Here Feb. 17

A patriotic reunion on Tuesday, Feb. 17, at St. Peter's Church will welcome one of the most striking personalities who has ever visited this neighborhood. He is personal chaplain to His Majesty, the King of England; senior chaplain of the heroic, unsung fleet of tankers which keeps the British navy supplied throughout the world; decorated as a companion of honor, Vicar of All Hallows Church, Tower Hill, London, the oldest church in England, founded in 675 A. D. The building was destroyed in the bombing of the heart of London in December, 1940.

As chaplain in Belgium in the first World War, he was with the men who endured the first gas attack, in the location of the great land mines, and where the first tanks were employed. The center he established there became famous under its official identification, as "Toc H," and was continued in London as the veterans' intimate reunion place. Instead of serving his tankers from a home office, he accompanies them on successive trips.

Intimately known as "The Padre" (of all in the service), and as "Tubby," the Rev. T. B. Clayton is of world distinction. He spoke in Grace Cathedral, San Francisco, and following his return from his ships at Los Angeles harbor will be seen only in this Redwood City reunion.

He will be presented by Walter H. Adams, British vice consul. St. Peter's Church is at 178 Clinton St., between Broadway and Brewster. The Sons and Daughters of St. George, the British Empire Legion, the Canadian Legion and American veterans will attend. The meeting is open to all the public, according to the pastor, the Rev. Schuyler Pratt.

A. G. Laurent Finishes U.S. Naval Course

Andrew Gresham Laurent, Sequoia High School graduate, has completed his course in the aviation machinists mates school at the U.S. Naval Air Station at Alameda. He is a second class seaman. Before enlisting, Laurent was active in boxing with the Redwood City Athletic Club.

GETS FLIGHT TRAINING

Three Peninsulans, including Eugene C. Scott of 2200 Carmelita Dr., San Carlos, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Scott, are members of the first class of America's future fliers sent on to flight training by the Air Corps Replacement Training Center at Kelly Field, Tex. Others are Robert N. McCune of Daly City and James B. Crump of Burlingame.

GARDEN for VICTORY

Grow Vitamins at Your Kitchen Door

Here is the outline of the Home Victory Garden Program, sponsored locally by Herbert Kertz and the Tribune:

Home gardens are those on home or other home-controlled grounds, planted and cared for by members of the family, the products of which are primarily used for home consumption.

The objectives of home gardens are:

1. To produce food for home consumption to the end that the food habits of the family may be improved from the standpoint of nutrition.
2. To maintain the morale of the individual family and the public.
3. To save family food expenditures.
4. To conserve labor, materials and transportation facilities.

Victory Garden Program

Every Family That Can Urged To Grow Food

Redwood City's garden contest, announced last Friday as being sponsored by the Tribune and Herbert Kertz, will tie in directly with a National Victory Garden Program recently launched at a conference of 200 representatives of publications and organizations interested in horticulture.

Called by Secretary of Agriculture Wickard and Director McNutt of the Office of Defense Health and Welfare Service, the conference, held in Washington, outlined a program calling for the growing of food for family consumption in home, farm and community gardens, and by school gardens, for both family and school use. Also fruits, flowers, lawns and shrubs will be encouraged, as "an essential part of American life and a stimulus to national well being."

Summing up the recommendations of the conference, M. L. Wilson, assistant director of defense health and welfare services, said:

"The Victory Garden Program offers the widest possible wartime participation to citizens not engaged in the military service, or the emergency services of civilian defense."

Organization of the campaign will be directed by Secretary Wickard and Director McNutt, and will enlist "all existing public agencies and invite the cooperation of all private agencies such as radio stations and networks, the daily and weekly press, farm, trade and professional publications, schools, churches and civic organizations."

Youth groups, such as the 4-H clubs, Future Farmers of America, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and all similar organizations will be enrolled as workers in the campaign. The Men's Garden Clubs of America, National Council of Garden Club Federations, Garden Club of America, Women's National Farm and Garden Association, were represented at the conference, and will be active in the campaign.

Technical information and supervision will be supplied by the Department of Agriculture, state land grant colleges, and other public agencies including County Agricultural Comsr. Max J. Leonard's office. State Defense councils and the Office of Civilian Defense will be active in promoting Victory Gardens.

"As we go home," said Wilson in dismissing the conference, "we may look forward to participation in what each one of us recognizes as one of the vital efforts for victory in the second World War. We do not know how long that war may last, but we do know that irrespective of its duration we have welded together a plan which we are confident will make a real contribution to victory."

Awards, to be announced later, are to be given in Redwood City for the best staple vegetables grown. Commissioner Leonard is preparing a series of articles which shortly will appear in the Tribune giving hints on the raising of vegetables in this vicinity.

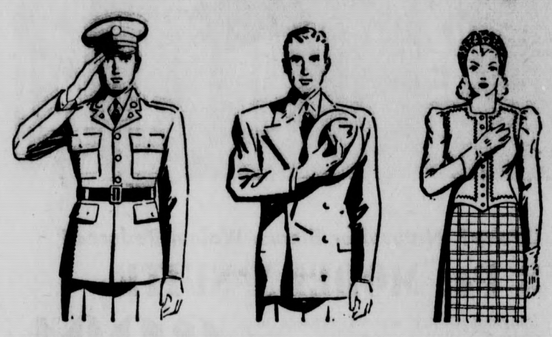
Every Patriotic American Salutes His Nation's Flag



During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the Flag, or when the Flag is passing in a parade or in a review, all persons present should face the Flag, stand at attention and salute.

Those present in uniform should render the right hand salute.

Those men not in uniform should remove their headdress with the right hand and hold it at the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart.

Women should salute by placing the right hand over the heart.

The salute to the Flag in a moving column is rendered as the Flag approaches the spectator and is held until it has passed.

Food Nutrients Important

Constant and ever-growing emphasis is being placed on the importance of choosing foods with necessary nutrients and vitamins and then protecting and preparing those foods so that these values are preserved.

Physicians, government experts and educators are constantly discussing these factors and placing them before the public in the hope that sooner or later the public mind will understand the necessity for putting the results of much research and testing to practical use.

Already, these farsighted researchers are seeing some measure of understanding come to the average American. It is a slow process, but one that is gradually succeeding. People have become vitamin-minded. Many of them don't yet know what vitamins are or are supposed to do for them. But they are learning, and it is to the advantage of the ice industry to help them learn.

It has been shown, time and again, that many of the most valuable vitamins are water soluble and that these occur in solution in many of the foods we eat. When the liquid portion of these foods, the natural juices, are allowed to become dehydrated . . . when they are not thoroughly protected by refrigerated air maintaining the proper conditions of humidity, then they dry out. In this process, valuable vitamin content is irretrievably lost.

DON'T USE BRUSH

Twice a year it is well to clean your rug cushions. If your vacuum cleaner has a brush, disconnect it before using the cleaner on the rug cushion, as the brush may loosen the felted hairs of the cushion. For the same reason you would never use a broom or a carpet sweeper directly on your rug cushions.

Five tons of nails per day are used by a Canadian plant in crating military vehicles for shipment to the British armies.

First Aid Tips For Cooking Utensils Save Money

When husbands scowl, without fail, the first of the month when the utility bills come in, it's time for the "little woman" again to rush to the rescue.

Here's a "first aid" tip: Check your cooking utensils. You'll be surprised at the saving you can effect in gas, electricity or whatever fuel you use for cooking, through careful selection of the proper utensils.

For example, take a type of utensil found in almost every kitchen — porcelain enameled ware. This is a popular ware in which a non-porous, sanitary porcelain enamel finish is applied to a strong metal base to make the utensil smooth, glossy and sanitary, as well as exceptionally strong.

For top-of-the-stove use, select an enameled utensil which properly covers the burner or heating element. This prevents waste heat escaping around the sides of the utensil. For best results, put a little water in the utensil at the start. Even in so-called "waterless" cooking with any utensil, a small amount of water must be used if the ingredients themselves will not retain sufficient moisture during the cooking process.

Keep the flame or current reasonably low. Never place an empty utensil on a hot burner. Also, avoid pouring cold liquids into or over a hot utensil. In baking, enameled ware should be greased generously.

Porcelain enameled ware heats quickly and evenly, and all the food is heated in almost equal degree in a comparatively short all-over cooking time. It retains heat well and keeps food hot during serving. Translate this into terms of three meals a day, thirty days a month, and the dollars-and-cents saving is appreciable.

Use Preference In Covering Floor

Personal preference rather than the mandate of fashion should govern the selection of floor coverings, according to the decorating staff of a nationally-known store.

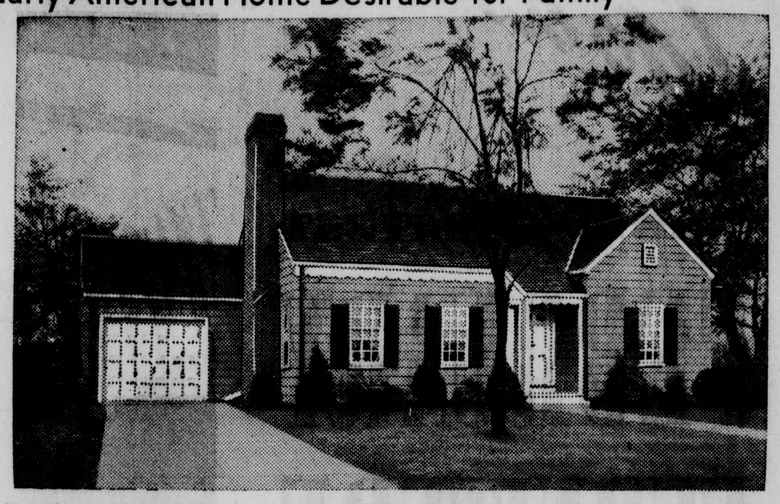
"No one color or pattern or variety of carpet is the only thing," this authority declared recently. "Certain broad trends and fashions exist, naturally, but selection of floor coverings which must be lived with for a considerable time of necessity must depend upon personal preference. Within the range of fashion-right colors, designs, and patterns, the one who buys may make a personal choice safely and with the knowledge that the choice will be everything that correct decorative principles demand.

"If one prefers plain colors, today's solid-colored carpets will provide enjoyment through many years. If patterns and designs be the selection, this choice has behind it a long tradition of style rightness which began with Oriental carpets and has lived through centuries.

"We simply point out that in the buying of figured fabrics, a large room permits use of bolder figures than the smaller room, because large patterns tend to make rooms seem smaller."

The Netherlands Indies ranks among the world's most important sources of rubber, tin and petroleum, according to the Department of Commerce.

Early American Home Desirable for Family



Here is a simple Early American Style with attached garage. There is a built-in fire place, a regular sized dining room, and a well arranged kitchen. The garage is very conveniently arranged with an entry from the kitchen. Five rooms, bath, and garage make this a home for a family of six.

Law Needed To Give Defense Projects to Private Builders

BY HERBERT U. NELSON
(Executive vice president, National Association of Real Estate Boards)

Ready to contribute to the war effort of our nation by building urgently needed housing for our defense forces and war workers stands the home building industry, otherwise, for a time at least, likely to be completely stopped. And the wartime job is sizable. Upon estimates made under our new war conditions, government officials say they count on private enterprise to produce during the year 1942 a minimum of 400,000 houses for defense workers in defense areas.

Lines will be drawn tighter in respect to these homes, so that they will become available almost exclusively for actual defense workers. The trend is to define a defense worker as one employed in a defense plant having defense orders. Defense areas will be narrowed or broadened from time to time, as conditions change. They now include a large portion of our urban population. For rental units, now in much demand, reconditioning of houses is called for. Both reconditioned units and new dwellings must be within commuting distance of expanding war industries.

But there are new handicaps under which private enterprise in the building field is now laboring, handicaps that have arisen in the change-over to a complete war economy. These must be removed if private builders are to do, quickly, what now needs to be done. Otherwise the federal government will do the building.

The Home Builders Emergency Committee, representing the home building industry, with Huge Potter, Houston, Tex., as chairman, has been meeting almost constantly since the declaration of war. In a series of conferences with officials of the government it is making important recommendations to this end. Critical for the future of home building is immediate clearing of the decks, by new legislation if necessary, for private activity wherever it is ready and able to produce what we must have.

The census reports that property taxes in 1919 constituted over 45 per cent of the total state tax collections, but in 1940 only 6 per cent of the total tax yield was from this source.

Potential Military Might To Register Feb. 14-16

Emphasizing the fact that the Selective Service Registration on Feb. 14, 15, 16 will complete the registration of America's potential military manpower, Brig. Gen. Joseph O. Donovan, state director of Selective Service, today pointed out that it affects every male resident in California between the military ages of 20 and 45 years, with a few exceptions made by Congress.

The requirement, General Donovan explained, is that all male persons not previously registered, who attained their 20th birthday on or before Dec. 31, 1941, and who have not attained their 45th birthday on or before Feb. 16, 1942, must register between 7 a.m. and 9 p.m. on one of the registration days.

Men between 21 and 36 years of age who registered in 1940 and 1941 are not required to register again, General Donovan stated.

He also pointed out that, to avoid interference with war production, arrangements have been made for registration over a three-day period. The places where local board offices and other registration places will be open for this registration in this vicinity are:

In Redwood City—Washington School, Lincoln School, Garfield School, McKinley School, John Gill School, Central School and Selective Service headquarters, 525 Marshall St.

Other places—City hall, San Carlos; city hall, Belmont; local board 107, 1074 El Camino Real, Menlo Park; Boy Scout hall, Pescadero; county library, Half Moon Bay; St. Patrick's Seminary, Menlo Park, and the post office, San Gregorio.

Any person who must register while away from his home, General Donovan warned, should be careful to specify his home address so that his registration card may be forwarded promptly to his own local board and to insure that he will be included in its potential manpower to fill calls for quotas.

Special registrars will be provided to register men who cannot appear at a designated place because of illness or other incapacity.

Alert Observed Here Till Planes Identified

As was the rest of the Bay Area, Redwood City was alerted to the danger of an air raid at 7:06 p.m. Saturday, but after the local control center was manned and key men in the city's civil defenses were at their posts, the alert ended at 7:28 p.m.

Fourth Interceptor Command flashed the preliminary warning at 7:02 p.m. when unidentified planes approached the area. The all clear sounded when the planes were identified, it was explained.

Since the war began the city has experienced six blackouts and 11 alerts. The last blackout was on Jan. 3.

Post-War Needs Cited

"The greatest responsibility which lies upon educators and parents today is to educate our boys and girls in such a way that they may be able to accept the heavy duties of citizenship 10 years from now when their country will need them as never before," said Supt. of Schools Andrew Spinas in a brief but stirring address at McKinley School graduation exercises Saturday afternoon.

An audience of several hundred persons gathered in McKinley Auditorium in honor of 71 eighth graders — Redwood City's first "blackout" graduation—heard Superintendent Spinas' plea that "our system of free public education be continued."

"It won't do us much good to win this war if in the winning we lose the things for which we're fighting," Superintendent Spinas reiterated. "We must so train our boys and girls that they may acquire those qualities of leadership which will carry this country through the storms that lie ahead."

Particularly addressed to students were his remarks pleading that youngsters do not join the armed forces before completion of their education.

"Your country will need you more later than it needs you now," he pointed out.

Despite the shadows of war, the hour's program—first daylight graduation in the history of McKinley—was for the most part a happy and informal occasion, with congratulations by parents and teachers and entertainment by graduates contributing to the spirit of the day.

Although the class was the smallest in the history of the school — in contrast to last June's graduating class, which was the largest—it had one of the highest percentages of honor students. Block 'M's and gold honor pins were liberally sprinkled on the light sweaters of the graduates.

Their gift to the school— a $25 defense bond — was designated for "purchase of films and other entertainment for use in this auditorium" upon its maturity 12 years from now.

"You have not only given something of value to the school but have also been very patriotic," Principal Ralph T. Case said in accepting the envelope.

The older a mother is the more likely she is to have twins, according to census records. During 1940, mothers aged 20 to 24 bore most single children, and mothers aged 25 to 29 bore most twins.

Diplomas were presented by C. G. Uhlenberg, clerk of the school board. Music was under direction of Ronald R. Spink and Francis E. McQuilkin, instructors.

The graduates enrolled at Sequoia High School this morning.

San Carlos Firm Expands Dress Factory

SAN CARLOS — Within the next few days William T. Emery, manufacturer of Patsy Ann Sports Wear for children and misses, will expand his business when he moves into the new building at 538 Laurel St. Orders were taken at the recent San Francisco style show for the production of from 8000 to 10,000 dozen garments for the coming year for firms from Chicago to Vancouver. The staff, which now numbers three, will be increased to about 10, Emery said.

'How Green Was My Valley' at Carlos

The dried meat of coconut, Tahiti's leading industry, is a source of nitro-glycerin and other explosives; the hard outer shell is treated to yield a fine charcoal, used as an absorptive and filtering material in gas masks.

Building Shows Gain

Building activity in Menlo Park during January staged a comeback with seven permits for projects totaling $38,300 being issued as compared with two permits valued at $8500 in the final month of 1941.

Atherton permits, however, dropped from a value of $55,600 in December to $28,185 in January.

The seven permits issued in Menlo Park by Bldg. Insp. John B. Glunz were:

Joseph Galli, owner; Charles Quinn, builder, on Quinn St., garage, $300.

Edward W. Church, owner; E. J. Schmaling, builder, on Laurel Dr., residence, $7000.

M. F. Palmer, owner and builder, 886 Partridge Ave., residence, $5000.

M. F. Palmer, owner and builder, at 312 University Dr., residence, $5000.

Astrid Hendrickson, owner; Rober & Cole, builders, on Live Oak Ave., apartments, $14,000.

John Rodrigues, owner; Kelley Bros., builders, moving garage, $4800.

C. Molteni, owner, Kelley Bros., builders, moving building, $2000.

Records in the office of Atherton Town Clerk Howard Boren show the following eight permits issued there:

J. J. Schlapper, owner and builder, at 23 Ralston Rd., tool shed, $35.

H. A. Berkuist, owner; W. P. Goodenough, builder, on Encinal Ave., residence and garage, $14,000.

T. M. Mendell, owner and builder, on Glenwood Ave., addition to residence, $350.

O'Brien & Anderson, owners and builders, in Flood Acres, structure enclosing pump and well, $100.

F. Krueger, owner; R. Millward, builder, at 37 Linden Ave., residence and garage, $10,000.

Peter Olsen, owner; Kelley Bros., builders, at 330 El Camino Real, moving building, $2000.

J. J. Bullock, owner; Kelley Bros., builders, at 378 El Camino Real, moving building, $700.

Mark McCann, owner; Hansen Bros., builders, at 352 El Camino Real, moving building, $700.

China has a three-year plan for increasing foodstuffs production, the Department of Commerce reports.

January Building Gains Over December

San Mateo County building activity in unincorporated areas rose from the December low but fell short of the total for January of last year, according to figures released by County Bldg. Insptr. A. W. Russell. The January, 1942, total, including 48 new residences and 15 non-residential buildings, was $224,700 compared to $251,240 for the same month in 1941 and $139,625 for December.

'Blossom Time' Coming To S.F. Theater Soon

SAN FRANCISCO — When "Blossom Time" comes to the Curran for two weeks beginning Sunday night, Feb. 15, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday a treat is in store for music lovers who will have the opportunity of hearing such celebrated pieces as the "Serenade," "The Song of Love," "Lonely Heart," and other Franz Schubert melodies.

The cast is headed by Everett Marshall, distinguished baritone, who is starred in the role of Franz Schubert. Supporting are singers who have been recruited from grand opera, the concert world and music conservatories. For the role of the beautiful and bewitching Bellabruna, the producers engaged Marthe Errolle, talented contralto who appeared with the Cincinnati Opera Co. for a number of seasons. The part of Baron Schober is played by Frank Hornaday. Playing opposite Mr. Marshall is Patricia Wing, one of Shubert's newest singing discoveries.

Truman Gaige began his theatrical career in San Francisco. For two seasons he sang with the St. Louis Municipal Opera Co. and he has appeared in several musical productions on Broadway. Driskill Wolfe is a southerner who was lured into musical comedy from the concert field which he had entered after studying at the Chicago Conservatory. Betti Davis was a scholarship-winner with both the Chicago Symphony and the Chicago Philharmonic Orchestras and has appeared in many of the operettas produced by the New York Opera Comique.

Easy Payment Plan Told

To make it easier for taxpayers to meet the increased taxes required by the National Defense Program, the Treasury Department is offering for sale two series of notes, both dated Aug. 1, 1941, and maturing Aug. 1, 1943.

In January of each year two new series will be provided so that a taxpayer can always purchase notes during the entire year in which he is receiving his income for use in payment of taxes due the following year. The reason for the two-year note is to permit a taxpayer, if he so desires, to begin saving in January of one year and continue through that year to save for his taxes due the following year.

All notes are sold at par and accrued interest. When presented in payment of income taxes they will be received at par and accrued interest up to and including the month in which such taxes are paid. Interest will not accrue beyond the maturity of the notes. If not presented in payment of income taxes, they will be redeemed for cash under certain specified conditions at the purchase price paid for the notes. In other words, the taxpayer, if he redeems the notes for cash, gets back just the amount he paid.

The 1940 census placed the total farm population of U. S. at 30,475,206, as compared with 30,445,350 in 1930.
